

CERTAIN BOARD and MANAGEMENT FUNCTIONS, PRIVILEGES, PROGRAMS, and PROJECTS IN RELATION TO THE ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF BENECO

POLICY 96-1

RATIONALE:

There is need to maintain the integrity of elections for directorship in the various districts of the Benguet Electric Cooperative.

This can be done by spelling out policies regarding certain actions, functions and duties, aside from certain privileges of the members of the Board, management, and employees of the BENECO during said election period.

Towards this end, the Board of Directors hereby adopts the following policies.

POLICIES:

I. INFORMATION AND EDUCATION CAMPAIGN

1. Funds for information and education campaigns on any and all programs, projects, and other activities of the cooperative to be conducted within FORTY (40) DAYS preceding the date of election for director within a district where such election is due shall be disbursed and handled solely by the BENECO management, through its Institutional Services Department.
2. Unless necessary, as determined by the Board of Directors, funding for any information and education campaign in any district shall be limited to P1,000.00 per month.

II. CASH ADVANCES

1. No member of the Board seeking election or re-election shall be allowed to draw cash advance to fund information and education campaigns or other BENECO projects to be undertaken in any representative district within FORTY FIVE (45) DAYS immediately preceding the date of election in said district.
2. Cash advances on honorarium, per diems and other regular monthly benefits due a member of the board shall be limited to what is still due him/her for three (3) months.

Any request for cash advance shall be made in writing, stating therein the reason/s for such and addressed to the Board and the General Manager who shall jointly approve or disapprove the same during a regular or special session of the Board.

3. No member of the Board shall be allowed to draw cash advances for personal use or purpose which are over and above what is still due him/her in terms of honorarium and other regular monthly benefits until the end of his/her incumbent term.

4. No cash advance on honorarium and other regular monthly benefits shall be granted to member of the Board unless he/she has been cleared of all accountabilities with the cooperative in accordance with the provisions of Policy No. 3-11 series of 1980 on liquidation of cash advances: if warranted, all accountabilities shall be deducted from the cash advance due the director.

III. PERSONNEL and OTHER BENECO RESOURCES

1. All management of officials and rank-and-file employees of the cooperative shall, at all times, be non-partisan in any district election and shall therefore be prohibited from electioneering or openly campaigning for any candidate.

Nothing herein provided shall be understood to prevent any officer or employee from expressing his/her views on current political problems and issues, or from mentioning the name/s of candidates/s for public office who he./she supports.

2. No equipment, property, or supply of the cooperative shall be used for the campaign of any candidate in any district election; officials and employees of the cooperative, however, are authorized, as part of their official responsibility and duty to distribute to consumer-members printed materials such as the BENECO calendar and the BENECO Journal which are annually or regularly given to member-consumers; provided further, that calendars shall not bear markings such as "DONATED BY: _____", "COMPLIMENTS OF _____" and other similar effects thereby making it appear that the same is from the BENECO official or employee.

IV. SANCTIONS and PENALTIES

1. Any violation of any of these policies on the part of the any official of the management or employee of the cooperative shall be penalized by suspension of ten (10) days without pay for each and every violation; the administrative procedure in the filing, investigation, and resolution of complaints regarding violation of any of these policies shall be in accordance with Section 16 of the Code of Ethics and Discipline for BENECO employees.
2. Any and each violation of these policies on the part of any member of the Board shall be penalized by forfeiture of one-third (1/3) of the total regular monthly cash benefits due the erring director.
