

GRANT and LIQUIDATION OF CASH ADVANCES

POLICY 3-21

As Amended

PURPOSE: To establish rules and regulations upon which cash advances are granted and liquidated.

INTRODUCTION:

Officials and employees of BENECO regularly go on travel to attend seminars, conferences, official functions and duties, and for which they are granted expenses which are usually in the form of CASH ADVANCES.

While these travels are important, it is imperative for officials and employees to make written report on decisions, resolutions, or actions taken during such travels.

In this way, other officials, employees and member-consumers are duly informed of the results of such travels for and in behalf of the cooperative, thereby enabling them to judiciously come up with decisions or actions based on such travel reports.

This is also in line with the policy of transparency of the cooperative.

POLICY:

1. That cash advances may be granted to employees and/or officials of the cooperative for the following expenses:
 - a. To meet contingencies for illness, accident, death or for educational needs.
 - b. To meet expenses which may be incurred by officials officially designated to represent the cooperative in seminars, conferences, symposia and the likes.
2. That cash advances made to employees and/or officials for contingencies should not exceed the amount of his/her monthly salary at any given time. The same should be liquidated in FIVE (5) installments to be deducted every payday.
3. That cash advances made by employees and/or officials of the cooperative chosen to attend seminars, conferences, symposia and the like shall be based upon the fees required, per diems allowed, transportation expenses and board and lodging expenses.

The same shall be liquidated by the individual concerned as required by auditing procedures including submission of proof of attendance.

4. That cash advances by the members of the Board shall be deducted from their per diems every Board meeting in FIVE (5) equal installments.

As Amended

5. That in case the employee or official failed to attend said seminar, conference, symposium, and the likes, he/she shall be made to refund the amount advanced to him/her to the cooperative either in cash or to be deducted from his/her salary or per diem in the case of the members of the Board in FVIE (5) equal installments.
6. That no further cash advances be granted to any employee or official concerned until such time that he/she has fully liquidated the cash advance incurred by him/her. per cash advance.
7. That an employee or official of the cooperative shall make a written report on the results of his/her travel within a week after his/her return from such travel, such report to be made a basic requirement in the liquidation of cash advance or travel allowances. The report may be submitted individually or collectively by the official or personnel concerned. Members of the Board shall address their reports to the Board, copy furnished the GM, the department managers, the BENECO employees' labor union, and any other department/section which should be aware of such report. The GM shall likewise submit his report to the Board, copy furnished the concerned departments, sections or employees. Department/Division managers shall submit their reports to the GM, copy furnished the Board and other departments, sections or employees concerned. Employees shall submit their reports to the GM through their respective department or division heads. Reports which to the judgment of the Board of Directors of the GM are of such importance that would require widest dissemination should be posted in the BENECO bulletin boards or publicized through the broadcast or print media.

IMPLEMENTATION:

The General Manager is responsible in the implementation of this policy.
