

INFORMED MEMBERSHIP

POLICY 8-6

PURPOSE: To set guidelines in informing the members of their rights and responsibilities and the services of the cooperative.

INTRODUCTION:

Members of the cooperative have all the right to be informed of their rights and responsibilities and the services which the cooperative renders.

Realizing that this aspect is very important in order to get maximum cooperation and support from its members, the Board hereby adopts the following policies:

POLICIES:

1. It shall be the policy of the cooperative to keep its membership fully and currently informed regarding:
 - a. their rights and responsibilities as owners of the cooperative.
 - b. the financial status and operating problems of the cooperative.
 - c. the services available by the cooperative and other organizations which relate to the improvement of rural family and community living.
2. To that end, the management is instructed to:
 - a. establish a quarterly newsletter to be available to all members.
 - b. cooperate with other agencies in providing information materials for publication and in getting such publications distributed to the members.
 - c. arrange an annual and/or community meetings for appropriate exchange of information regarding the matters set forth in paragraph 1.
 - d. provide for adequate progress and qualified personnel to carry out these activities effectively as a regular part of the cooperative operations.

IMPLEMENTATION:

The Board of Directors and the General Manager shall be responsible for the implementation of this policy.
