

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

POLICY 3-2

as further amended w/ addendum

PURPOSE: To establish policies governing leave of absence, its benefits and applications.

INTRODUCTION:

Leave laws are social legislations designed to enhance the health and economic well-being of employees. The Board, believing in the basic principle that a healthy person is a productive employee, hereby adopts the following policies.

POLICIES:

1. Generally, all employees, whether permanent or temporary, who render work during the prescribed hours shall, after six (6) months of continuous. Faithful and satisfactory service be entitled to fifteen (15) days vacation leave and fifteen (15) days sick leave annually with full pay, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

"EMPLOYEES" as used herein shall refer to both officers (except the members of the Board) and employees of the cooperative.

2. A BIRTHDAY LEAVE of one (1) day shall be granted to any employee corresponding to the day of his birth.

In cases where an employee's birthday falls on a Saturday, Sunday, public holiday, or February 29, he shall have the option to apply for either the working day immediately preceding or following his birthday.

Unused birthday leave cannot be monetized and is forfeited.

3. Leave without pay not exceeding one (1) year may be granted in addition to the vacation and sick leave earned: provided that leave without pay shall not be granted whenever an employee has leave with pay to his credit.

Requests for leaves shall require clearance of the employee from his accountabilities: the same request shall indicate therein the purposes /reasons (e.g, study leave).

Management reserves the right to withdraw any previously approved leave and require the employee concerned to report to work immediately.

4. Employees appointed on a casual or emergency status shall be entitled to vacation leave and sick leave after having rendered an aggregate of at least six (6) months service, provided such six months period does not involve a single break of more than one (1) to seven (7) days, the total of which should not exceed fifteen (15) days.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

POLICY 3-2

As further amended with addendum

5. Retainers and other employees hired on contractual basis are not entitled to any kind of leave benefits; for this purpose, employment contract shall not provide for any leave benefits.
6. BENECO Board Resolution No. 69-95, dated 13 May 1995, provides: ALL EMPLOYEES who have rendered at least one (1) year continuous service shall be entitled to a STUDY LEAVE without pay for any period depending on the purpose of the leave for regular employees such as Board review and examination (maximum of six months) and special training/scholarships (depending on the type of training or scholarship being applied for).

IMPLEMENTING GUIDELINES:

1. All applications for leave of absence for one (1) full day or more shall be filed on the prescribed form at least three (3) days in advance.
2. All applications for sick leave of absence for one full day or more shall be filed on the prescribed form and shall be filed immediately upon return of the employee from such leave.

Notice of absence, however, should be sent to the immediate supervisor.

3. Sick leaves in excess of five (5) days shall be supported by a medical certificate issued by any physician.

In case of doubt, the General Manager may require a medical certificate even for sick leave below five (5) days.

4. Leave of absence for any reason except illness of an employee must be contingent upon the exigencies of the service.

Hence, the grant of vacation leave shall be upon the discretion of the General Manager.

5. An employee who applied for leave of absence with pay shall be granted based on the salary he is currently receiving.
6. Sick leave shall be granted only on account of illness or disability of an employee.
7. Sick leave may be applied in advance in cases where employee will undergo medical examination or operation or advised to rest in view of ill health supported by a medical certificate.
8. Vacation and/or sick leave requested by an employee during the first six (6) months of service from the date of original appointment (probationary period) shall be without pay.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

POLICY 3-2

As further amended with addendum

Any absence during the said period shall extend the completion of the probationary period for the same number of days that the employee was absent.

8. An employee shall not earn vacation and sick leave credits while he is on leave without pay.

9. Any employee who has a pending formal administrative case shall not be granted vacation leave without pay during the pendency of the case.

10. An employee who retires, voluntarily resigns or is separated from the service through no fault of his own, shall be entitled to the commutation of all his unused leave credits.

Service credits of those separated from service for cause shall be forfeited.

11. Any employee who is absent for at least thirty (30) days without approved leave is considered on absence without leave (AWOL) and may be dropped from the service without prior notice.

A notice or order of the dropping from the roll of employees shall be issued by the General Manager and submitted to the Board within five (5) days from the date of its issuance for final action.

12. Tardiness and undertime shall be deducted from vacation leave credits based on 8-hour per day.
13. Computation of vacation and sick leaves shall be made on the basis of 1.25 days vacation leave and 1.25 days sick leave for every month of actual service,

A fraction of one-fourth (1/4) or more but less than three-fourths (3/4) shall be credited as one full day for purposes of determining leave credits and granting of leave of absence.

POLICY 3-2, as amended, provides amongst others that:

- d. Upon termination of his employment for any cause, an employee shall not be paid for any accumulated sick leave and such sick leave shall be forfeited: any employee re-employed at a later date shall not have his accumulated sick leave reinstated.
- e. Upon termination of his employment for any cause, an employee shall be entitled to receive the pro-rate portion of his vacation pay earned for the current year, plus his vacation pay for all days accumulated.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

POLICY 3-2, as amended

- f. In the event of death of an employee, the employee's immediate survivor of his estate shall be paid for all the deceased employee's unused vacation leave.
- g. As of December 15 each year, any unused vacation leave and/or sick leave shall be paid in cash to each employee at his current salary rate.

REPEALING CLAUSE:

All existing policies or resolutions which are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed or amended accordingly.

EFFECTIVITY:

This Policy, as amended, shall take effect upon approval by the Board.

IMPLEMENTATION:

The General Manager shall be responsible for the implementation of this policy.

POLICY No. 3-2
(as further amended with addendum)

SUBJECT: LEAVE of ABSENCE

PURPOSE: To establish policies governing leave of absence, its benefits and applications.

INTRODUCTION: Leave laws are social legislations designed to enhance the health and economic well-being of employees. The Board, believing in the basic principle that a healthy person is a productive employee, hereby adopts the following policies.

POLICIES:

1. Generally, all employees whether permanent or temporary who render work during the prescribed hours shall, after six months of continuous faithful and satisfactory service, be entitled to 15 days vacation leave and 15 days sick leave annually with full pay, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

"EMPLOYEES" as used herein shall refer to both officers (except members of the Board) and employees of the Cooperative.

2. A birthday leave of ONE day shall be granted to any employee corresponding to the day of his birth.

In cases where an employee's birthday falls on a Saturday, Sunday, public holiday, or February 29, he shall have the option to apply for either the working day immediately preceding or following his birthday.

Unused birthday leave cannot be monetized and is forfeited.

3. Leave without pay not exceeding one year may be granted in addition to the vacation and sick leave earned. Provided, that leave without pay shall not be granted whenever an employee has leave with pay to his credit.

Requests for leaves shall require "clearance" of the employee from his accountabilities. The same request shall indicate therein the purposes/reasons (e.g. study leave).

Management reserves the right to withdraw any previously approved leave and require the employee concerned to report to work immediately.

4. Employees appointed on a casual or emergency status shall be entitled to vacation and sick leave after having rendered an aggregate of at least six months service, provided such six-month period does not involve a single break of more than one week and/or several breaks of from one to 7 days, the total of which should not exceed 15 days.

5. Retainers and other employees hired on a contractual basis are not entitled to any kind of leave benefits. For this purpose, employment contract shall not provide for any leave benefits.
6. BENEKO BOARD RESOLUTION No. 69-95, dated 13 May 1995, provides: All REGULAR EMPLOYEES who have rendered at least ONE (1) YEAR continuous service shall be entitled to a STUDY LEAVE without pay for a period depending on the purpose of the leave for REGULAR EMPLOYEES such as Board review and examination (maximum of SIX months) and special training/scholarships (depending on the type of training or scholarship being applied for).

IMPLEMENTING GUIDELINES

1. All applications for leave of absence for one full day or more shall be filed on the prescribed form at least three days in advance.
2. All applications for sick leave of absence for one full day or more shall be on the prescribed form and shall be filed immediately upon return of the employee from such leave.

Notice of absence, however, should be sent to the immediate supervisor.

Sick leaves in excess of five days shall be supported by a medical certificate issued by any physician.

In case of doubt, the General Manager may require a medical certificate even for sick leave below five days.

3. Leave of absence for any reason except illness of an employee must be contingent upon the exigencies of the service.

Hence, the grant of vacation leave shall be upon the discretion of the General Manager.

4. An employee who applies for leave of absence with pay shall be granted based at the salary he is currently receiving.

MEMORANDUM:

FOR : THE GENERAL MANAGER
THRU : THE ISD MANAGER 8/8/96
FROM : THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER
SUBJECT : BENEFITS/ALLOWANCES OF EMPLOYEES ON LEAVE

This pertains to the benefits/allowances being claimed by employees who went on leave for a period of one month or more—rice allowance, representation allowance, rainwear allowance and uniform allowance. This office believes that benefits/allowances such as these should be earned while the employee is working. In other words, the benefits/allowances and the days worked should complement each other.

In this regard, the following are strongly recommended:

1. Monthly allowances/benefits shall not be allowed to employees who go on leave for a month or more except in cases when the employee is on sick leave. This includes the rice allowance and representation allowance.
2. All allowances/benefits shall not be allowed to employees who go on leave for a year or more. This includes the rice allowance, representation allowance, rainwear allowance and the uniform allowance.

It is further recommended that, if approved, it will be applicable retroactive January 1, 1996.

POLICY NO. 3-2 (as amended)

SUBJECT: VACATION AND SICK LEAVE

INTRODUCTION:

Granting of vacation and sick leaves with pay for employees provides an additional incentive for dedicated and faithful performance of their duties. The Board, realizes further that this is a standard practice in government as well as private entities, therefore adopts the following policies:

POLICIES:

1. After an employee has completed six (6) months of continuous service, he shall be allowed fifteen (15) days vacation and fifteen (15) days sick leave with pay for every year of service.
2. An employee shall not earn vacation and sick leave credits while he is on authorized or unauthorized leave of absence.
3. Sick leave may be taken only if the employee is unable to perform his duties because of his sickness or injury; or because of the death of the employee's spouse, child, father, mother, brother, sister, mother-in-law, or father-in-law, or because of the serious illness or injury of the employee's spouse, child, father, or mother, but in this latter case no employee may take more than five (5) days sick leave per year.
4. Upon termination of his employment for any cause, an employee shall not be paid for any accumulated sick leave; all such sick leave shall be forfeited. Any employee re-employed at a later date shall not have his accumulated sick leave reinstated.
5. Upon termination of his employment for any cause, an employee shall be entitled to receive the pro-rata portion of his vacation pay earned for the current year, plus his vacation pay for all days accumulated.
6. In the event of the death of an employee, the employee's immediate survivor of his estate shall be paid for all the deceased employee's unused vacation leave.
