

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

POLICY 3-1

PURPOSE: To establish policies regarding the organizational structure of the Cooperative.

INTRODUCTION:

The Cooperative should be adequately staffed to carry out the functions of the enterprise to achieve its corporate objectives.

The Board further realizes that the organizational structure must be dynamic and be responsive to the needs of the cooperative.

To this end, the Board therefore adopts these policies:

1. The organizational structure shall be developed from the point of view of the activities and functions required to achieve the objectives of the cooperative. The activities shall be grouped into jobs and organization units according to the similarity of functions.
2. Organization units and levels shall be established as department, sections, and units.
3. The organization plan shall be kept flexible to be responsive to changing conditions.
4. Each employee's responsibilities, authority, and relationship shall be:
 - a. Explicitly written in a job description form.
 - b. Clearly understood and accepted by the employee concerned and by all persons affected by the job.
5. There shall be an organizational manual containing but not limited to organizational charts, job descriptions, wage and salary scales.

IMPLEMENTATION:

The Board shall be responsible for implementing paragraphs 1, 2, and 3; the Manager shall be responsible in implementing paragraphs 4 and 5 of this policy.
