

PATERNITY LEAVE

Policy No. 02 - 2005

PURPOSE:

To establish a policy in the granting of paternity leave to all married male employees of the cooperative.

INTRODUCTION:

Republic Act no. 8187 requires employers either in the private or public sectors to grant every married male employee seven (7) days paternity leave with full pay for the first four (4) deliveries by his lawful wife.

POLICIES:

1. Paternity leave shall be granted to the qualified employee after delivery of his lawful wife, without prejudice to the employer allowing an employee to avail of the benefit before or during the delivery, provided, that the total number of days shall not exceed seven (7) days for each delivery.
2. The employee is entitled to full pay consisting of basic salary for the seven days during which he is allowed not to report for work, provided that his pay shall not be less than the mandated minimum wage.
3. Where a male employee is already enjoying the paternity leave benefit by reason of contract, cooperative policy or collective bargaining agreement, the following rules shall apply:
 - a) If the existing paternity leave benefit is greater than what is provided, the greater benefit shall prevail;
 - b) If the existing paternity leave benefit is lesser than what is provided, such existing benefit shall be adjusted to the extent of difference.
 - c) Where a contract, cooperative policy or collective bargaining agreement provides for an emergency or contingency leave without specific provisions on paternity leave, the paternity leave shall apply in full.

IMPLEMENTATION:

The General Manager shall be responsible in implementing this Policy.

EFFECTIVITY:

This Policy shall take effect upon the approval of the Board of Directors.
