

THE GENERAL MANAGER'S SALARY AND ALLOWANCES

POLICY 2-2

PURPOSE: To establish policies regarding the salary and allowances of the Manager.

INTRODUCTION:

The Board recognizes the key role of the Manager in the successful operation of the cooperative. To entice highly qualified persons of unimpeachable integrity for the job, the Board must set an attractive salary and reasonable allowances.

To this end, the Board Adopts the following policies:

1. The Board shall authorize the salary/honorarium of the Manager.

In general, the starting salary/honorarium shall be in effect during the probationary period; at the end of this period, the salary/honorarium may be increased.

2. For the meantime that the Manager's residence has not been constructed by the cooperative, the Manager shall be authorized housing allowance, the maximum of which shall be fixed by the Board.

3. To relieve the Manager of expenses for entertaining official visitors of the cooperative, the manager shall be authorized representation expense, the maximum of which shall be fixed by the Board.

IMPLEMENTATION:

The Board is responsible for implementing this policy.
